

An Evening at Earthways - Conversations on Energy Costs

- understand future pricing predictions for natural gas, electricity and gasoline
- comprehend how these energy costs are actually determined
- assess what you can do to save energy and money at home
- determine how you can save money by addressing energy costs
- investigate what the industries are doing regarding use of renewable energy

Our presenters:

Laclede Gas

- Pamela Kramer Childress, Manager, Consumer Education, pkramer@lacledegas.com
- Tom Schultz, Manager, NGV Marketing, TSchultz@lacledegas.com

AmerenUE

- Chris Iselin, General Manager, Generation, CIselin@ameren.com

Peabody Coal

- Morry Davis, Manager of Power Marketing, mdavis@peabodyenergy.com

A.G. Edwards and Sons - (forecasting crude oil prices)

- Bill O'Grady, Director of Futures Research, bill.o'grady@agedwards.com

Illinois Petroleum Council

- David Sykuta, Executive Director, juteland196@aol.com

EarthWays Center, a division of Missouri Botanical Garden

- Deborah Chollet Frank, Director, and Glenda Abney, Program Manager, earthways.center@mobot.org, 314-577-0220

Thursday, November 18, 2004, 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

EarthWays Home, 3617 Grandel Square, Mid-town St. Louis, 1 block N of Fox Theatre
FREE with reservations 314-577-0220  Light refreshments provided

Thanks to the presenters, their companies, and to all attendees.

Brought to you by Missouri Botanical Garden's EarthWays Center.

For more information go to www.earthwayshome.org or 314-577-0220 or earthways.center@mobot.org